

Idaho Conservation League

Wild Idaho North!

Conservation Moving Forward

Sponsored by the Idaho Conservation League and Friends of Scotchman Peaks Wilderness

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2005
at City Forum
418 N. 3rd
Sandpoint

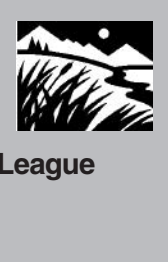

Idaho Conservation League
PO Box 844
Boise, ID 83701

Wild Idaho North!

Conservation Moving Forward

Saturday, October 15, 2005
City Forum, Sandpoint

Idaho Conservation League
www.wildidaho.org

Agenda

9:30 am Coffee and Muffins
9:45 Welcome
Jonathan Oppenheimer, Idaho Conservation League conservation associate

10:00 - 11:30 am Wilderness Potential in North Idaho
Doug Scott, Campaign for America's Wilderness: Wilderness — Past, Present and Future
Gundars Rudzitis, University of Idaho: Economic impacts of Wilderness
Philip Hough, Friends of Scotchman Peak Wilderness: Local Options
Cesar Hernandez, Montana Wilderness Association: Politics of Cross-border Wilderness

11:30 - 12:30 Keynote: A Vision for North Idaho
Keynote presenter: Rick Johnson, Idaho Conservation League executive director. Honored as one of the 100 most influential Idahoans, Rick will present a vision for building support for conservation in the Panhandle. He'll discuss the challenges and opportunities of wilderness campaigns, and the plan for a new office in Sandpoint.

12:30 - 1:30 pm Lunch

1:30 - 2:30 pm Ecology of North Idaho
Jeff Copeland, Rocky Mountain Research Station: Wolverines
Amy Haak, Conservation Geography: Conservation Assessment of Idaho

2:30 - 2:45 pm Break

2:45 - 3:45 pm Transboundary Conservation
John Bergenske, Wildsight: Canadian and U.S. Endangered Species Conservation
Joe Scott, Conservation Northwest: Coordinating Conservation Across the 49th Parallel
Candace Batycki, ForestEthics: Market Campaigns in Conservation

3:45 - 4:00 Closing Remarks

5:30 Dinner
Location to be announced.

Sunday Optional Field Trip
Optional field trip to the proposed Scotchman Peaks Wilderness. After learning about the local wilderness effort, politics of wilderness movements and the ecology of the area, we'll have an opportunity to explore the Scotchmans in the field with local leaders of the wilderness movement.

About the Conference Sponsor

Idaho Conservation League is the largest statewide conservation organization in Idaho and has worked to protect Wild Idaho for over 30 years. Because you love Idaho, the Idaho Conservation League works to protect Idaho's clean water, wilderness and quality of life.

Friends of Scotchman Peaks Wilderness is a grassroots group working to provide the 88,000-acre Scotchman Peaks Roadless Area permanent protection as wilderness. Working in coalition with groups in Montana and Idaho, their aim is to preserve one of the last and largest wild areas in our region.

Conference Registration

Conference registration is filled on a first come, first served basis.

Please make reservations for _____ person(s) to attend the conference at $55 each (includes lunch and dinner)

Total amount enclosed: $ _____

Name(s) _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone _____ E-mail _____

Organization (if any) _____

Return form with check payable to Idaho Conservation League to:

*Idaho Conservation League, Attn: JDO
PO Box 844, Boise, ID 83701*

*To make hotel reservations, please call:
K2 Inn 208.263.3441
Best Western Edgewater 208.263.3194
La Quinta Inn 208.263.9581*

For more information call 208.345-6942 x 26